Soup and Substance: Policing in the 21st Century

The Office of Community Engagement (OCE) will host its first Soup and Substance discussion of the semester—"Policing in the 21st Century"—on Wednesday, February 1, at 6 p.m. in Imholte Hall 111. The first in a three-part series, the event will focus on recent conflicts between citizens and law enforcement and ways to address the underlying causes of these conflicts. The event is designed to provide an open forum for members of the Stevens County and campus communities to discuss issues of local, regional, national, and international importance. The discussion is sponsored by OCE, the Office of Equity, Diversity and Intercultural Programs, Campus Police, Morris Police Department, Stevens County Sheriff's Department, International Student Program, United Students for Africa, and Black Student Union. For more information and/or accommodations, please contact engagmnt@morris.umn.edu.

Blood Drive

The campus will host a blood drive on Thursday, February 2, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the Student Center's Oyate Hall. Organizers urge eligible donors to come out and support the cause: donating blood makes a big difference in the lives of others. Sign-up on the day or walk in. Remember to hydrate and bring two forms of ID. Most donations take about an hour, so plan accordingly. Not sure if you're eligible? Show up to find out.

Sing

Monday-Thursday 7PM
Friday & Saturday 7PM & 9PM
Sunday 2PM & 7PM

In a world like ours but entirely inhabited by animals, we meet Buster Moon, a dapper koala who presides over a once-grand theater that has fallen on hard times. Buster is an eternal, some might say, delusional optimist who loves his theater above all and will do anything to preserve it. Now, faced with the crumbling of his life's ambition, Buster has one final chance to restore his fading jewel from its former glory by producing the world's greatest singing competition. Rated PG, 108 minutes.

See you at the movies!
