Announcements & Events:

- The Morris Area School Board is conducting a search for a new superintendent. The school board contracted with the Minnesota School Boards Association (MSBA) to provide guidance and assist us with the search. The School Board is seeking input from school district staff, parents, and community members to help in the search for the new superintendent. The information collected will be used to help shape the candidate interview questions.
- Gatherings for Widows and Widowers will meet for lunch at noon on Sunday, April 7, in the basement of Old #1 in Morris. Order lunch off the menu and enjoy an opportunity to visit with old friends and meet new ones who are also experiencing life as a widow/widower. For questions call Rose at Pedersen Funeral Home 320-589-3220.
- Morris Area Chamber of Commerce: New hours will be Monday – Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
- Join the participating chamber retail businesses for our Bring On Spring Event from April 11-13. See ad in this edition of Friday Facts for more details.

All events are free to attend, unless otherwise noted.

NATIVE VOICES: NATIVE PEOPLES' CONCEPTS OF HEALTH AND ILLNESS EXHIBIT

Native Voices: Native Peoples' Concepts of Health and Illness opens at Rodney A. Briggs Library on Wednesday, February 27, 8 a.m., main floor. Native Voices explores the interconnectedness of wellness, illness, and cultural life for Native Americans, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians. Stories drawn from the past and present examine how health for Native People is tied to community, the land, and spirit. Through interviews, Native People describe the impacts of epidemics, federal legislation, the loss of land, and the inhibition of culture on the health of Native individuals and communities today. The U.S. National Library of Medicine (NLM) developed and produced Native Voices: Native Peoples' Concepts of Health and Illness. The American Library Association (ALA) Public Programs Office, in partnership with NLM, tours the exhibition to America's libraries. The exhibit runs through April 10.

MORRIS COMMUNITY MEAL: Monday, April 8, at 5:30 p.m. at Faith Lutheran Church (108 West 8th Street, Morris, MN 56267), the April Morris Community Meal will take place. The menu will feature a free, delicious, and healthy menu of Honduran enchiladas, black bean soup, and caramelized bananas over ice cream. Volunteers are needed to set up and prepare the meal on Sunday April 7, 2–8 p.m. and on Monday, April 8, 2–9 p.m. This meal is sponsored by the UMN Morris Office of Community Engagement, Lazos, Dacotah Bank, Heartland Motor Company, and Rentz Agency/Midwest Health. To get involved as a sponsor for future meals or volunteer, contact the Office of Community Engagement at 320-589-6457 or engagmnt@morris.umn.edu.

RODNEY A. BRIGGS LIBRARY ASSOCIATES ANNUAL MEETING: Tuesday, April 9, at 7 p.m. in Briggs Library, lower level, the Briggs Library Associates (BLA) will hold their annual meeting. The agenda includes election of BLA board members, Collection Enhancement Grant presentations, and guest speaker Linda Dahlen '72, author of The Viking Priest. All are welcome. Refreshments will be served.

ASKING THE BIG QUESTIONS: HUMAN VS. AI DECISION MAKING: Wednesday, April 10, at 7 p.m. in the Briggs Library, McGinnis Room, Asking the Big Questions will explore Human vs. AI Decision Making. Would you accept the judgment of an AI judge? What are the implications in giving up human choice? How far is the technology progressing? Can artificial intelligence be free of human bias and make better decisions? Special guests Steven McFarlane, Philosophy, and Peter Dolan, Computer Science, will weigh in. Conversation to follow. Refreshments will be served.

GWSS WORKS IN PROGRESS: SICK WOMAN THEORIES WITH ANGELA HUME: Thursday, April 11, at 5 p.m. in Imholte Hall 109, Assistant Professor of English Angela Hume will present "Sick Woman Theories: Queer Poetics and Feminist Disability Liberation Politics." Light refreshments will be served. This activity is sponsored by the Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies (GWSS) Program.

BEFORE THEY GO EXTINCT: AN EVENING OF FROGS AND FILMS WITH KATIE GARRETT: Thursday, April 11, at 7 p.m. in Imholte Hall 109, Katie Garrett will host a showing of her favorite short films and a Q&A session. Garrett is a director and producer of natural history films that combine intimate, close-up cinematography with personal stories from people living and working alongside nature. This activity is co-sponsored by the Biology Discipline, the Environmental Studies Discipline, Campus Activities Council, and the Honors Program.

2019 THEATRE DISCIPLINE SPRING CHILDREN'S SHOW: THE WONDERFUL WIZARD OF OZ: Friday, April 12, at 7 p.m., and on Saturday, April 13, at 1 p.m. in the Raymond J. Lammers Proscenium Theatre, Humanities Fine Arts, the Theatre Discipline will close its 2018–19 season with The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, a fresh adaptation of the classic L. Frank Baum novel, written by Jacqueline E Lawton and directed by Professor of Theatre Arts Ray Schultz. The Wonderful Wizard of Oz is a bold new take on a classic story, with a few surprises in store. Free parking is available in the North Parking Lot. For reservations, call 320-589-6274 or email thrupub@morris.umn.edu. Tickets: $4

35TH ANNUAL CNIA POWWOW: Saturday, April 13, in the P.E. Center Gymnasium (626 East Second Street, Morris, MN 56267), the Circle of Nations Indigenous Association (CNIA) will host its 35th Annual CNIA Powwow. The CNIA Powwow introduces the Morris campus and community to a contest-style powwow and celebrates the social and cultural ties American Indian students have with Native communities across the United States and Canada. Doors open and registration at 9 a.m. Grand Entry, a procession of all dancers into the arena, at 12 and 7 p.m. Free parking is available in the South Parking Lot. To learn more, contact the Equity, Diversity, and Intercultural Programs Office (EDI) at 320-589-6095 or ummcnia@morris.umn.edu.

25TH CONCERT IN SIGNS: Saturday, April 13, at 10:45 a.m. in Edson Auditorium, Student Center, the 25th Concert in Signs will take place.

2019 HORTICULTURE DISPLAY GARDEN EVENT

Grafting Apple Trees

Curious about grafting? We'll cover the basics—the why, when, and how to graft. Various grafting techniques will be discussed, along with how to care for your grafted tree.

Class will consist of a presentation as well as a hands-on demonstration. If you wish to bring home a grafted tree, please bring to class: heavy duty leather utility gloves, a utility knife, newspaper, and $5 to cover the cost of the grafted tree (payable to Miltona Greenhouses).

Led by David Vaske, owner and operator of Miltona Greenhouses in Alexandria. David is a PhD BioChemist by trade, but his real passion is apples and fruit growing. He is in his 6th season of production at Miltona.

Conexiones is a non-profit organization based in Morris and serving Stevens County. We are seeking an Executive Director with a strong interest in helping us pursue our mission: integrating and empowering immigrant families in the community. The position is part time with full-time potential and salary is based on experience. Executive Director will be responsible for securing future funding for the position and operations of the organization.

To apply, send cover letter and resume to: Conexiones, PO Box 346, Morris MN 56267. Application deadline is April 30, 2019. You may contact conexiones@conexiones-mn.org or 320-444-7875 for more information or to request the full job description.

Summer Employment Opportunities

At the University of Minnesota West Central Research and Outreach Center (WCROC), we provide research-based innovative solutions to farmers, producers and citizens. Our areas of research include agronomy and soil science, dairy, horticulture, renewable energy, and swine. The WCROC is located 1/2 mile east of the U of M Morris campus.

For the 2019 Summer Season (May/June–August/September), we are looking for dedicated students to join our team:

Agriculture, Environment Sciences, and Maintenance—The position, as is the 'name' of it, is pretty broad. You will be working independently and with others helping with multiple tasks around the farm and at our administration building. It is focused on facility maintenance (painting, fixing, and property maintenance) but we also help out the livestock crew and the plots department

Application Deadline

Applications accepted until positions are filled.
